

What's the journey about?

The Dancing the Divine experience deeply heals and nourishes the feminine heart in all women, and simultaneously heals the collective rift between the masculine and the feminine in the world around us. It is a journey undertaken by women, but has been designed for both men and women to benefit – to bring us together in greater love and understanding.

'That we may sing and dance as the gods and goddesses we truly are, here in heaven on earth, as intended' Roxy.

In this journey we explore our true nature and the source of who we are through the pathway of Sacred Sexual Dance. This practice is natural to us all. As we are conceived through sex, sexual energy is the very foundation of our creation. We are all sexual beings. By embracing our sexuality we illuminate our essence and at the same time uncover the patterns of behavior, beliefs and conditions that have held us separate.

The transformative power of this energy has been used throughout time in many cultures around the world as a method for healing, manifestation and celebration. Incorporated in holy feasts and sacred rituals, the dances offer a portal to higher realms of consciousness. By altering our state of perspective we get a deeper insight to all areas of our life, creative inspiration and an opportunity to express beauty.

Dancing the Divine 2010

What can I expect in the Course?

The course runs through a series of phases that unleash, develop and refine a woman's expression of her deepest hearts calling. It is an informative, experiential, deeply moving process and most of all life transforming!

Whilst the majority of the course is undertaken by women, restoring the feminine to her rightful place, benefits both men and women. This is articulated with the Divine Offering at the end of the final week. Each woman invites a beloved guest (male or female, friend or lover) into the temple to experience the magic of this sacred embrace. The following day, Tantric Master, Shantam Nityama holds an Integration Workshop for all participants and their guests.

The simple act of partaking in a 'Divine Offering' in what ever capacity, expedites a woman's spiritual maturation. To rise above her fears, social conditioning and small mindedness assists her to find a way of being in true love and service.

Every woman's deepest longing is to give her love and be received. The witnessing aspect of the Divine Offering fundamentally shifts her experience of self for life and integrates her journey back into her family and community.

What else does DTD offer:

Dancing the Divine

IN THE TEMPLE OF THE GODDESS

You're invited to explore the ancient art of Sacred Sexual Dance, a rite of passage bringing you home to the heart of the Divine Feminine Essence.

About the facilitator

The Dancing the Divine Offering Courses are guided by Roxanna Minnona, mentored by Shantam Nityama and assisted by a group of experienced facilitators. The work was developed in Byron Bay 2002 and Roxy has been weaving the Global sister web ever since – facilitating women of all ages in the UK, USA, Europe, South Africa, India and Australia.

Roxanna's life's work is dedicated to re-awakening our true essence as sacred sexual beings. Creatively inspired, her approach is transformative and unique. Taping into our orgasmic bliss liberates us from the never ending external search for truth and breaks down the illusions of separation.

Roxanna is passionate about shedding light on the insanity that we have accepted as normal and where we suffer unquestioningly. Transmuting all through love, realigns us with our divine purpose and nature.
